2nd & 3rd November 2010

OIL & GAS AKTAU

AKTAU is located at the heart of a dynamic oil and gas region which attracts companies involved in upstream oil and gas activities, seaport development and energy transit. Aktau is home to the Caspian's most advanced port, which is undergoing expansion and renovation works.

CONFERENCE

OILTECH MANGYSTAU launched in 2009 and held in Aktau, is supported at the highest levels and the conference is a forum for stimulating debate and an ideal place to stay in touch with the latest developments affecting oil and gas projects in the region and the new business opportunities.

The conference is complemented by an exhibition. The two combine to provide an environment that it's conducive to business as MANGYSTAU OIL & GAS unites the key buyers, suppliers and contract administrators who want to know more about the major oil and energy companies' future procurement needs, technology directions and contract strategy.

The organisers of OILTECH MANGYSTAU 2010 would like to express thanks to the following organisations for their valued contribution
